

NSP Time Frames

18-Month Time clock

March 19, 2009 -- HUD approval and 18-Month time clock BEGINS to obligate NSP funds

September 18, 2010 -- All NSP must be obligated, 18-Month time clock ENDS

48-Month Time Clock

March 19, 2009 – HUD approval and 48-Month time clock BEGINS to expend NSP funds

March 19, 2013 – All NSP funds must be expended on eligible NSP project costs, 48-Month time clock ENDS.

Stage 1 Application

April 13, 2009 through September 18, 2010 – MDOC will accept applications for Stage 1 (as identified in the NSP amendment) until the end of the 18-Month time clock.

As outlined in the October 6, 2009 NSP Federal Register Notice all NSP funds MUST be obligated by the end of the 18-Month time clock, therefore, potential applicants are advised to apply for NSP funds well in advance of the September 19, 2010 deadline to ensure that NSP funds are obligated for their specific project before September 19, 2010.

Stage 2 Application

April 20, 2009 through September 18, 2010 – MDOC will accept applications for Stage 2 (as identified in the NSP amendment) until the end of the 18-Month time clock.

As outlined in the October 6, 2009 NSP Federal Register Notice all NSP funds MUST be obligated by the end of the 18-Month time clock, therefore, potential applicants are advised to apply for NSP funds well in advance of the September 19, 2010 deadline to ensure that NSP funds are obligated for their specific project before September 19, 2010.

Stage 3 Application

May 18, 2009 through September 18, 2010 – MDOC will accept applications for Stage 2 (as identified in the NSP amendment) until the end of the 18-Month time clock.

As outlined in the October 6, 2009 NSP Federal Register Notice all NSP funds MUST be obligated by the end of the 18-Month time clock, therefore, potential applicants are advised to apply for NSP funds well in advance of the September 19, 2010 deadline to ensure that NSP funds are obligated for their specific project before September 19, 2010.